Arts for Transformative Education - 15-minutes online survey

Dear ASPnet teacher,

Best greetings from the International Coordination Unit of the UNESCO Associated Schools Network (ASPnet) at UNESCO Headquarters in Paris!

First of all, we like to take the opportunity to congratulate you on your inspiring and transformative action as ASPnet teacher in promoting UNESCO's values and diffusing the SDGs, as well as in empowering your students as creative and global citizens.

Countless of your projects and initiatives show that arts education plays an important role in your schools. To learn in more detail how teachers can support transformative education with arts learning experiences, UNESCO invites you to participate in a 15-minutes online survey:

The survey will be conducted in collaboration with the Canadian National Commission for UNESCO and the UNESCO Chair in Arts and Learning Prof. Benjamin Bolden (Queen's University, Canada).

The results of the survey will inform a new UNESCO ASPnet co-publication on « Arts for Transformative Education », including a collection of learning experiences from the UNESCO Associated Schools Network, in collaboration with the Canadian NatCom and the Chair.

The survey is open for all teachers – arts teachers and teachers of non-arts subjects, including all levels of education.

The survey will take 10-15 minutes to complete. It can be completed in French, Spanish or English. Survey responses will be anonymous. Please submit you response by latest 15 July 2022.

If you wish to be engaged in future ASPnet or UNESCO activities in the field of arts education, please provide your contact information by clicking here. Please note that the contact information you provide will NOT be linked in any way to your survey responses

Thank you very much for your interest and contribution to this important study, as well as for your ongoing efforts!

Best regards,

ASPnet International Coordination Unit
