In-depth Course on WTO Dispute Settlement (in English)

Weeks of 1 and 8 December 2025, and 12 and 19 January 2026

Invitation to present candidates

The Secretariat of the World Trade Organization (WTO) is organizing an In-depth Dispute Settlement Course in English. This course will take place online, during the weeks of 1 and 8 December 2025, and 12 and 19 January 2026. This course aims to provide participants with a robust understanding of WTO dispute settlement procedures, knowledge of the practical aspects of dispute settlement and the legal underpinnings of the dispute settlement system, and development of applied skills in these areas. Participants will learn from legal experts from the Secretariat, seasoned government officials, respected private legal practitioners, and academics through a series of presentations, round-table discussions, videos, exercises, and simulations.

Implemented within the WTO progressive learning framework, this online course, spread over four weeks represents the highest level of learning ("Level 3") among WTO training activities. The course is targeted at participants who possess a sound knowledge of the general features of the WTO system and its dispute settlement mechanism. The course requires a commitment of 5 hours per week in online presence as well as offline time for review and practical exercises.

WTO Members and Observers are invited to present up to two candidates to participate in this course. Only candidates who satisfy the following criteria will be considered:

- a. The course will be conducted in English. All-around proficiency in English is therefore an essential prerequisite for participation.
- b. Participants should possess a legal background or be directly involved at a technical, practical or policy level in WTO dispute settlement. Preference will be given to candidates who have already completed the "Level 2 WTO thematic dispute settlement course" or who have commensurate knowledge or professional experience.

A selection process will be conducted to fill the thirty (30) available spaces for government officials from Members and Observers.

Pursuant to Article 27.3 of the Understanding on Rules and Procedures Governing the Settlement of Disputes, this course is open to all interested Members and Observers.

The WTO will communicate directly with the selected participants after the conclusion of the selection process.

Interested candidates need to submit the online application form, available at:
