BAYHOST
Stichwort: „Sommer Sprachkursbewerbung“
UNIVERSITÄTSSTR. 31
93053 REGENSBURG
DEUTSCHLAND

6. Will I receive a confirmation of reception for these additional documents?

No. After you have submitted the online application form, you will receive an email from us with the online application form attached as pdf confirming the reception of your online-form. Due to the very high number of applications we are unable to acknowledge receipt of documents sent by mail. Hence, we kindly ask you to refrain from enquiries.

7. Is it really not necessary to translate or certify my documents legally?

No. Normal copies are sufficient. In case you already have translations of your documents, you are welcome to submit them additionally.

8. What kinds of proof of my German language skills are accepted?

Any certificate or letter, that confirms, that you learn or speak German, is accepted, e.g. TestDaF, OnDaF, proof from the Goethe-Institute or other language schools and universities. Thereby, it is important, that the proof shows the level of German language skills.

9. Which grading system should I indicate in the online-application form?

You don't have to convert your grades into the German system. Just insert your grades according to the system of your home university or school respectively.

10. Can I apply for several courses?

Please name three summer courses in your application form that you will be able to attend as far as dates are concerned. If you are interested in further summer courses, please let us know in your letter of motivation. On receipt of the scholarship we will register you for one of your chosen courses.

11. What do I have to pay attention to in terms of my choice of course?

You have to select at least three courses. We will try to adhere to your preference, but cannot give any guarantee. Please note that all courses have restricted numbers of participants.

The courses in Augsburg and Bamberg demand a minimum level of German of B2 (rather C1). All other courses are offered for all course levels.

12. What costs are covered by the scholarship?

The scholarship covers the costs of the course, accommodation and includes an allowance for food. In 2017 the food allowance is expected to be 16€ per day for all summer courses (except for Eichstätt with 10,66€, because there breakfast is already included in the accommodation).

Travel costs, insurance and visa costs will not be reimbursed! Costs for excursions will only be covered, if they were already included in the course fee.

Please note that some courses require an accommodation deposit which is not covered by the scholarship. Therefore you should plan taking some own financial means with you. The deposit will be paid back on your departure if there are no complaints (i.e. damages) at the accommodation.

13. What are my obligations, if I am awarded a scholarship?

If you receive a scholarship and accept this you are obliged to participate in and be present at the entire language course from beginning to the end. You are as well obliged to take out a health insurance for your stay in Bavaria. Please note that BAYHOST does not assume liability for your stay in Germany.

Further, scholarship holders are obliged to send a report on their stay in Bavaria as a Word-Doc via email to BAYHOST by 1st October 2017.

14. What do I do, if I want to change my data in the online-form?

In order to change your data you will have to fill in the whole online form all over again. It is important that you use the same email address. Afterwards you will again receive a confirmation email including an updated PDF-file.

15. What language should I write the letter of motivation in?

In German or in English. If you are already advanced, try to write the letter of motivation in German as much as you can. It's always good to show you tried.

We won't be strict about grammatical or spelling mistakes. It would, on the other hand, seem strange, if you were a beginner of German language and wrote your motivation in perfect German...

More important is that your letter is comprehensible and convincing. The letter of motivation is an essential part of the application, so of course you need to have a good argumentation. Whether you write it in German or in English is your choice according to your knowledge of German.

16. What should be considered in my CV?

The CV should be tabular and start with the most recent event (chronologically backwards). Blocks: Personal data, education, work experience, language skills, IT-skills, other commitment (voluntary work, leisure activities, etc). This structure can vary. Complete every block by adding short explanations e.g. about the key aspects of your studies. A possible model format can be found at:

<http://europass.cedefop.europa.eu/en/documents/curriculum-vitae/templates-instructions>

You don't have to use the Europass-Templates for your CV and are welcome to create your own design. This is just an example.

17. What are the selection criteria?

For the selection we take the following points into consideration:

- previous academic achievements (i.e. grades, scholarships or prizes, talks at conferences etc.)
- convincing letter of motivation: Why do you learn German and why is a German language course important for you? (i.e. academic or professional reasons)
- how long and how intensively have you been learning German; what proficiency level have you already reached?
- practical experiences (e.g. internships, part-time jobs)
- participation at conferences / non-curricular seminars / advanced training courses etc.
- voluntary work and commitments (e.g. student representation, theater group, sports associations, political clubs, NGO etc.)

18. Can I apply, if I haven't done an internship or voluntary work yet?

Yes. The proof of internships and voluntary work is additional information – it is not obligatory. Not having done an internship or voluntary work does not mean that you won't have a chance to get the scholarship.

19. Do I have to register for the language course at the same time?

No, only if you would also want to participate in the course without a scholarship. In the case that you are awarded a scholarship from BAYHOST, there will be a place reserved for you in one of the language courses mentioned on our scholarship webpage. Please always name at least three courses of your choice. We will do our best to take your wishes into account.

Please note that BAYHOST is only in charge of the scholarships. If you have questions regarding the courses you have to direct these to the respective course organizers.

20. "Isn't your time frame for contacting selected candidates a bit tight?"

We always try to select and contact first the candidates from countries where a visa is still needed. So far all candidates have always managed to organise themselves in order to take part in the language course of their choice. Moreover it is written that we try to contact the candidates at latest by [!] 1st July 2017, i.e. we aim to do this earlier, or as early as we possibly can.

21. Who can I contact regarding questions or problems?

Should further questions arise when filling out the form or you encounter difficulties, please contact Ms Katrin Döppe (doeppe[at]bayhost.de).

22. What happens to my data after the scholarship selection?

In order to use your data for the scholarship selection, you will be asked for the following consent after filling in the BAYHOST-online-form:

I consent that my personal data may be saved for the purposes of the scholarship selection, granting and administration according to the legal data protection regulations. Your application data will be only transferred to all relevant bodies for the scholarship implementation and will be deleted 1,5 years after the selection process in case your application is not successful. The other documents will be saved for the purposes of the scholarship administration and only be used with your consent or according to the legal data protection regulations. Furthermore, the privacy declaration of the University of Regensburg applies.

If you would like to receive further information on BAYHOST activities, you can add an additional optional declaration of consent:

I consent that the collected data may be additionally used for the purposes of informing about further BAYHOST programs (via e-mail). The consent in the above mentioned use of data can entirely or partly be withdrawn to the BAYHOST at any time and effectively for the future. The revocation has to be addressed to: BAYHOST, University of Regensburg, 93053 Regensburg, Germany. The consent is optional. Through the refusal of the consent or the revocation do not arise any disadvantages for the scholarship selection.

Please note that we are unable to return application documents that were sent to us.
